MY COMMAND IN SOUTH AFRICA, 1874-78.

Comprising Experiences of Travel in the Colonies of South Africa and the Independent States. By General Sir ARTHUR T. CUNYNGHAME, G.C.B., then Lieutenant-Governor and Commander of the Forces in South Africa. 8vo, with Maps, 12s. 6d.

(Third Thousand, with Letter from "One who has Lived in Zululand," reprinted, by permission, from the Times.)

The Morning Post says:—"Sir Arthur Cunyngame's book needed no extraordinary circumstances to command for it popularity, for it consists of an admirable account of our Cape colonies, based on personal experience, combined with much information communicated by trustworthy residents..... It would be impossible to give any adequate idea of this valuable book in a necessarily brief review, but we are obliged to confess that it is about the most replete with useful information concerning our South African possessions of any we have yet read."

The Academy says:—"The book would in any case have been an interesting one, and at the present time it is doubly valuable..... It is agreeably written, and abounds in amusing anecdotes and curious facts. It has appeared exactly at the right time, and we recommend it with perfect confidence to our readers."
